+ Yeshua's Circumcision

Father reads Luke 2:21:

On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise Him, He was named YESHUA, the name the angel had given Him before He had been conceived.

Father also reads Luke 2:25-38:

Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and Ruach HaKodesh was upon him.

It had been revealed to him by Ruach HaKodesh that he would not die before he had seen YHVH's Anointed.

Moved by Ruach HaKodesh, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Yeshua to do for him what the custom of the Law required, Simeon took Him in his arms and praised YHVH, saying: "Sovereign LORD, as You have promised, You now dismiss Your servant in peace. For my eyes have seen Your Salvation, which You have prepared in the sight of all people, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to Your people Israel."

The Child's father and mother marveled at what was said about Him.

Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, His mother: "This Child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying.

Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to YHVH and spoke about the Child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

+ Blessing the Children under the Tallit

After the children are under the Tallit, Father and Mother say:

Blessed are You, O YHVH our GOD,
King of the universe and eternity,
Who has commanded us to teach our children about You.

Bless them now as they stand in Your Presence covered by the blessing of our prayers.

We offer them to You today, praying that they will grow up with the eyes of their minds alert and eager to study Your Word.

May the ears of their hearts always listen to Your Instructions.

May our suggestions, loving discipline, and example always direct them to You.

We offer this prayer in Yeshua's Name,
Who is Your Word to us.

+ Amen +

+ The Family Blessing

Father AND the children bless the family:

YHVH bless you and keep you.

YHVH make His Face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.

YHVH turn His Face toward you and give you His Shalom.

Candy treats are then given to the children as Father reminds them of Psalm 19:8-11 which says:

The PRECEPTS of YHVH are right, giving joy to the heart.

The COMMANDS of YHVH are radiant, giving light to the eyes.

The FEAR of YHVH is pure,
enduring forever.

The ORDINANCES of YHVH are sure
and altogether righteous.

They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the comb.

By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.
